

Gemini-LLM Q/A Text ChatBot

Type your Input:

who is s.jaishankar

Ask Question?

Response:

Subrahmanyam Jaishankar is an Indian diplomat who is the current Minister of External Affairs, serving since 2019.

Background:

- Born: January 9, 1955, in New Delhi, India
- Education: St. Stephen's College, Delhi; Jawaharlal Nehru University (M.Phil in International Relations)
- Indian Foreign Service: Joined in 1977

Diplomatic Career:

Jaishankar has held various diplomatic positions, including:

- Ambassador to the United States (2014-2018)
- Ambassador to China (2009-2013)
- Secretary (East) in the Ministry of External Affairs (2007-2009)
- High Commissioner to Singapore (2007)
- Indian Ambassador to the Czech Republic (2001-2004)

- High Commissioner to Singapore (2007)
- Indian Ambassador to the Czech Republic (2001-2004)

Minister of External Affairs (2019-Present):

As the Minister of External Affairs, Jaishankar is responsible for India's foreign policy, including:

- Maintaining diplomatic relations with other countries
- Negotiating international agreements
- Representing India at international forums, such as the United Nations
- Promoting India's economic and strategic interests abroad

Key Accomplishments:

- Negotiated the Doklam standoff with China in 2017
- Helped secure the release of Indian citizens abducted in Iraq
- Strengthened India's partnerships with the United States, Japan, and Australia
- Played a key role in India's response to the COVID-19 pandemic

Awards and Recognition:

- Padma Shri (2019)
- Honorary Doctorate from Banaras Hindu University (2021)
- Ranked among the Top 100 Global Thinkers by Foreign Policy magazine (2021)

Personal Life:

Jaishankar is married to Kyoko Jaishankar, a Japanese national. They have two sons.